

Certification from Undergraduate Institution

The application for admission under the 3+3 Program at Saint Louis University School of Law is not complete until SLU LAW's Admission Office receives, from an authorized representative of the Partner Institution, a certification that if the applicant enrolls in SLU LAW and successfully completes the first year of SLU LAW's full time JD program, the applicant will qualify for a bachelor's degree from the Partner Institution. The certification should include the information set out below and is subject to confirmation after the applicant has completed three-fourths of the credits leading to a bachelor's degree:

TO: Saint Louis University School of Law Admission Office
100 N. Tucker Blvd, Suite 986
St. Louis, MO 63101

Date:

I certify that [Student's Name]

1. Is enrolled in a bachelor's degree program at [Name of Partner Institution]; and
2. Will have completed three-fourths of the credits leading to a bachelor's degree by the end