

Uncovering the Lying Witness: Are Questions the Answer?

Innovative Approaches to On Demand Continuing Legal Education Ethics Training: A Case Study

Effective Public Health Communication in a Post-Covid-19 America: Lessons from Behavioral Science,

The Psychology of Science Denialism and Lessons for Public Health Authorities

Motivated Reasoning and Legal Ethics

Retribution as Ancient Artifact and Modern Scourge

Defense Attorney Bias and the Rush to the Plea

Adolescent Decision-Making at the End of Life,

The Rhetoric of Fear and Partisan Entrenchment

Financing Elections and "Appearance"

Motivated Malpractice and Physician Responses to Antiabortion Statutes

When Inertia is Deadly, Protocols Can Save Lives: Protecting Doctor's Ability to Provide Pregnant Patients Appropriate Care

Empirical Evidence of Physician Risk Aversion in Abortion Care

Legal Responses to Domestic Violence

Psychological Antecedents of Ethical Missteps

From Ferguson to Ukraine: Behavioral and Cognitive Features of Power and Control

Psychological Dimensions of Power and Oppression

Insights from Behavioral Science and Client-Centered Criminal Defense

Whose Choice? Legal and Psychological Considerations in Adolescent End-of-Life Decisions

Gideon v. Wainwright: How Far Have We Come in Fifty Years?

Money in Elections: Why We (Might) Need to Worry

Interdisciplinarity and Criminal Law

The Expressive Function of Law: Lessons from Campaign Finance and Tort Reform

Rethinking Post-Enlightenment Assumptions about Risk Policy,

A Behavioral Science Approach to the Supreme Court's Campaign Finance Jurisprudence,

Taming the Irrational Voter: Regulating the Political Marketplace

Publicity, Pressure and Environmental Legislation: The Untold Story of Availability Campaigns

How to Combat Vaccine Hesitancy? Take a Cue from Psychology

