

Minor Involvement in Laboratories

(Updated May 1, 2023)

Minor Involvement in Laboratories

Minors in Labs Web Page: Minors in Labs Downloads (Individual links to documents are also included below.)

1. Download and read Research Administration Policy R07, Minors in Laboratories Policy, in its entirety.

2. U.S. Code of Federal Regulations for 2023! Download and complete Form A: Request for Approval of Research Project Involving Minor Participants in Laboratories (Revised 2023-05-01); complete pages 1 thru 6.

This is a fillable PDF form, best viewed and completed in Adobe Reader or Pro.

After completing the form, it can be saved and pages forwarded via email to:

MinorsInLabs@slu.edu

Page 1 of FORM A may be signed by the sponsoring faculty member at a later date and sent via interoffice mail or scanned and emailed, but must be received by EHS before final approval can be given.

Form A does

Minors In Laboratories Faculty Step by Step Guide To Approval & Onboarding

(Updated May 1, 2023)

- d. Bloodborne Pathogen Training: Assure minor had completed the Bloodborne Pathogen Training module available through Skillsoft, if working with bloodborne pathogens, human derived materials, or primate derived materials (including cell lines).
2. Occupational Health Program (OHP) Enrollment: Assure student has completed the necessary forms for enrollment in the Occupational Health Program (if total duration of visit is greater than 4 hours and/or on two or more different days).
 - a. Link for Occupational Health Program: Click Here
 - b. Occupational Health Program Policy for Laboratory and Animal Research Policy: Click Here
 - c. Enrollment Details: Go to link in 2a. above, and scroll down to Enrollment
 - d. Enrollment Form Medical History Questionnaire

Questions: Contact the Occupational Health Program Manager
Email: ohp@slu.edu or Call 314-977-7026

3. Parking and Card Services: <https://www.slu.edu/parking/contact-parking.php>
 - a. Upon arrival of minor at SLU, have the minor go to the Parking and Card Services Office located in Wood Center, Suite 1303545 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis MO 63108 to obtain their I.D Badge.

•